Terms of Use for Able Hakuba Goryu & Hakuba47 Season Passes

Terms of Use

(1) Any unauthorized use of this pass shall result in it being immediate rescinded.

(2) This ticket is valid and may be used only by the person whose photo is attached to the ticket. Therefore, any use by anyone other than the person himself/herself/themselves is strictly prohibited, regardless of the reason. Failure to comply will result in a charge of three times the cost of the season ticket. In addition, the person who has misused the ticket will also be billed for the number of days of misuse x the daily ticket fee.

(3) Should you transfer the pass to another individual, it is prohibited to purchase the Able Hakuba Goryu & Hakuba47 and Goryu Night Skiing Season Pass for 10 consecutive seasons from the season following the purchase.

(4) Individual ski areas establish regulations regarding the use of their slopes, including prohibitions on off-course skiing. Pass holders are expected to obey these regulations. Failure to abide by these regulations will result in the pass being immediately rescinded as per (1) above.

(5) Deliberate tampering or modification of the case containing the IC card will disable the IC card. Such attempts will result in the pass being immediately rescinded as per (1) above. If a member of the ski area staff asks to see your card in order to confirm your identity, you must show the card with the photograph clearly visible.

(6) Please kindly note that once ABLE Hakuba Goryu & Hakuba 47 Common Season Passes are purchased, under no circumstances (including weather conditions) will refunds or cancellations be made. However, we will be providing refunds in accordance with Goryu & Hakuba 47 committee regulations if our operation period is limited to 10 days or less and also providing full refunds if we are forced to close our operations during the winter. Season Pass holders will be eligible for a refund on their season pass, from which handling fees are deducted.

(7) The pass is valid from the first day the ski area opens until the last day of that same snow season. The Spring Pass is valid from March 1st until the last day of that same snow season.

(8) This pass is not valid for usage that requires extra charges, such as night skiing.

(9) Should you lose the pass, immediately contact the ski area where you purchased the pass.

(10) The pass is valid from the first day the ski area opens until the last day of that same snow season. However, even on operating days, the ski area may close some or all of the slopes and lifts due to inclement weather or snow conditions. As well, lifts may cease operation for a number of reasons before the end of the season. Pass holders are urged to confirm that lifts are operating by phone or the Internet before traveling to the ski area.

(11)Reissuance is generally not provided, but in case of loss, a reissuance fee of 5,000 yen will be charged.

Privacy Policy / Use of Personal Information

Goryu47 Ropeway Council may use personal information provided by Season Pass purchasers for the following purposes

- To verify the identity of the purchaser or applicant
- To provide information regarding use of the season pass
- To send information, advertisements, and promotional materials related to products, services, events, and campaigns offered by the Goryu47 Ropeway Council, Goryu Co., Ltd., and Hakuba Forty-Seven Co., Ltd.
- To provide important notices and communications Goryu47 Ropeway Council.
- To offer special benefits and services for season pass holders and provide related information
- To outsource certain operations involving personal information to qualified third-party contractors under appropriate supervision and security

Hakuba Goryu • 47 Ropeway Council